

Working With Us - The Pig 'n' Whistle Pub

We operate a chain of restaurants in Brisbane City, Indooroopilly and Maroochydore. Our business is a business of people - of customers and the staff who look after them. In our 26 years of hospitality, we have been blessed with many exceptional people joining us. Great staff have been a crucial element in our success.

To continue our success, we must exceed our customers expectations. For that, we need to ensure new staff have the same vision, ability and commitment.

We have always been a business who encourages applicants from a diverse range of backgrounds. We base our recruitment selection on integrity and ability to perform. Race, religion, gender, sexual preferences etc have never been a factor in our hiring or promotion of staff. We have an exciting range of career opportunities throughout the company, so apply on-line now!!
